The following members of the board of directors were absent: Sophie DeBenedetto, Miriam Pena Villanueva.

Agenda Items

1. Approval of minutes from previous meetings.

RESOLVED, that the Erlang Ecosystem Foundation approve the minutes as presented as representing a true and accurate record of the board meeting #60 held on January 20, 2022. Unanimously approved.

2. Intermediate actions: Sebastian filed 1099-NEC (for payments made to US individuals). Alistair was reminded by the state of CA to file RRF-1, will do so asap.
3. Financial update: Sebastian walked through the income and expenses for 2021 and where we are as of today. Membership numbers: Basic: 888, Annual Supporting: 139, Lifetime Supporting: 17, Managing and Contributing: 20. Total (including board and fellows): 1073
4. Unanimous consent votes: none requested.
5. Board elections 2022. This year's election will be based on cohort A, which now includes: Richard Carlsson, Kenneth Lundin, and Maxim Fedorov. Fred had prepared a proposal to run the elections with the following dates:
 - February 25: Elections announced, people can submit their candidacy

- March 10: Last day to submit your candidacy. Email acceptance ends at midnight PT on the 11th
- March 11: Votes are open
- March 18: Votes are closed

RESOLVED, that the Erlang Ecosystem Foundation election to the board will be held according to the proposed schedule. Unanimously approved.

Peer will assist Fred with election administration.

6. Google Summer of Code: The EEF has had good experience with GSoC before, and the board is supportive of making it happening this year as well. Alistair will ping mentorship working group and ask them broadcast for mentors and organizers.
7. Budget and planning.
 1. Maxim explained that the infrastructure is working on a CI proposal, and will ask for a budget for it. He proposed that all working groups should submit budget requests, and for planning we should cap working groups that do not request a budget at a certain percentage of the total (e.g. 5%). Alistair will reach out to working group chairs.
8. Any other business:
 1. Bryan suggested that we give active working groups their own Zoom accounts (to avoid scheduling conflicts, and reduce administrative overhead). Approved.
9. Alistair declared the meeting adjourned at 16:59 UTC.
