Update from Dan:

- Synced Daylite with QuickBooks for sponsor payments
- Working on automating processes
- Preparing for FOSDEM (working on a talk)
- Starting to work on side event for ElixirConf EU in Malaga (end of April)
- Jonatan, Alistair, and Dan spent time writing grant proposal together with NC State (filed on January 12, deadline January 13)

2.9 Stipend requests

2.9.1 Already passed

- Benjamin Philip: Upstreaming an EEF sponsored project to the Apache Software Foundation. (Note: ASF requires copyright transfer, but this must include all contributors: Jose, Tristan, Paulo Valente, and Benjamin, making the process more complex. A sign-off process is needed.)
- Bart Blast: Some wrap-up work still outstanding between Lars and Dan (to be discussed offline).

2.9.2 On hold

- Louis Pilfold: Gleam Documentation ($8,000)
- Hayleigh Thompson: Lustre Documentation ($6,000)

Alistair spoke with Louis and will speak to Hayleigh at FOSDEM. Feedback given that they need to do something beyond documentation.

2.9.3 New

- Zoey Pessanha: Anubis MCP project ($2,100) - LGPL licensing issue needs to be worked out. Needs a sherpa.

2.10 Unanimous Consent Voting System Discussion

Discussion about improving the unanimous consent voting process. Peer expressed concerns that the current WildApricot system is inadequate and researched alternatives, finding two candidates: one designed for board meetings (hosted in France, GDPR compliant, ISO 27001 certified) and one cryptographic election system (hosted in Germany).

2.11 Upcoming Events

- Code & Compliance, Brussels (January 29)
- OWASP Security Meeting, Brussels (January 30)
- FOSDEM 2026, Brussels (January 31 - February 1)
- Gleam Gathering, Bristol UK (February 21)

Note: Next board meeting (scheduled for Thursday before FOSDEM) will likely be cancelled unless something urgent arises.

2.12 Any other business

Note: There was a technical issue with the meeting agenda distribution - the Google Groups mailer flagged Alistairs email as spam, so only those directly CC'd received the agenda ahead of time.

Alistair declared the meeting adjourned at 17:55 UTC.
