Introduction

All directors on the Erlang Ecosystem Foundation board, and all members in EEF working groups volunteer their time to make the foundation work. This enables us to make sure we spend the as much of the foundations resources on the community itself.

In 2023 we almost doubled the sponsorship income compared to 2022, and in the end we raised approximately $105,000 in sponsorship donations. Income from membership grew slightly, but seems to remain at around $14,500 for all three years 2022 through 2024. With a healthy income in 2023 the foundation approved numerous stipends and projects (more details can be found in the yearly report) for a total of $112,838. As can be seen in this report the net result for 2023 was negative $22,798, but the financial health of the foundation is still good, as we had funds saved up from previous years.

In the current year, 2024, the sponsorship renewal has slowed due to a general economic downturn and is back to 2022 levels. However, the activity in EEF remains high, and lots of new projects are underway. So far the spending on projects is lower this year compared to last (both because of fewer applications and less money to spend). The preliminary 2024 balance sheet as of November is included for reference. In it we have kept the convention from last year, and include approved stipends from previous and current years that have yet to be paid out as liabilities.

Taxes 2023

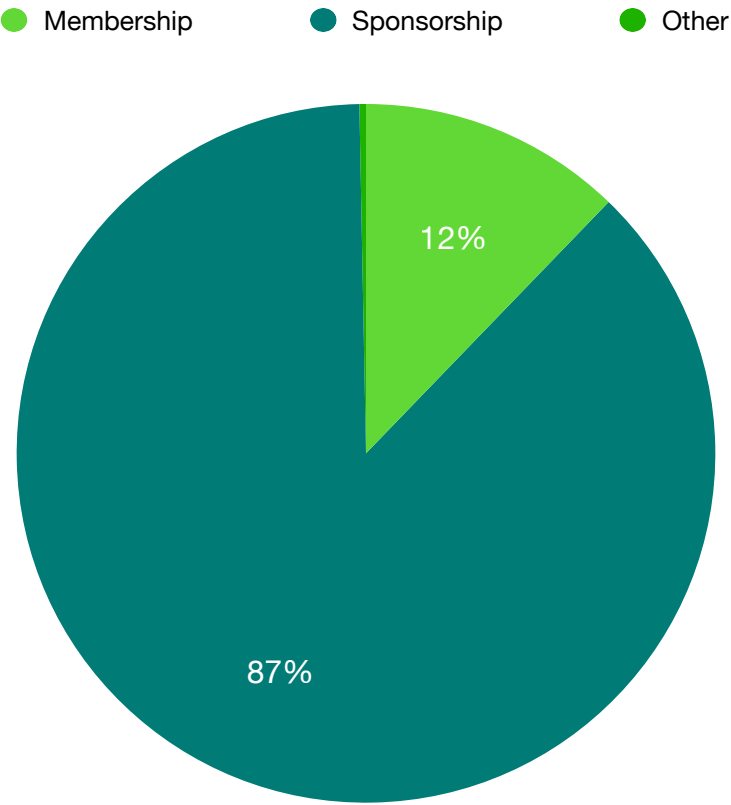

The Erlang Ecosystem Foundation taxes were filed with the IRS on time (on November 14, 2024). EEF also filed form 199 with the California tax board. Included in this document is the first page of the form 990-EZ that was filed with the IRS.
